Florida Legislature Gearing up for Giveaways to Home Insurers

There have been three consistent themes to this legislative session: disempowering teachers, deregulating industry and helping special interests make more profits. No industry bilks the Florida taxpayer out of more money annually than home insurers and a series of bills in the legislature form a holy grail of wet-kiss legislation that will allow them to push their "earnings" through the stratosphere.

San Remo Delivers! But You'll Have to Pick Up Your Pizza

Being a northerner who spent a year working in Manhattan, my standards on pizza pie can be quite high and truth be told, I'd rather abstain than eat bad slice. To my mind, bad pizza is worse than no pizza at all and because of that, I thank god I discovered San Remo Pizza and Pasta in Central Bradenton.

Government Forecast

This Week in Local Government, March 28-31

This week in local government: The Sarasota/Manatee Metropolitan Planning Organization holds its bi-monthly meeting Monday morning at Sudakoff Center on the campus of New College in Sarasota, and the Manatee County School Board holds its regular meeting Monday evening, and a workshop on Wednesday evening. The Board of Manatee County Commissioners convenes for its regular meeting Tuesday morning in county chambers. All are open to the public.

Sunday Favorite

Sunday Favorites: Stalking Jimmy Buffett

I am pretty sure that Jimmy Buffet thinks I'm stalking him. It wasn't my intention. In fact, it was my goal this winter to get a picture with him. That's all, not to get a clipping from his hair or go through his garbage or anything creepy like that. I just wanted a picture, just a new Facebook default of me and Jimmy.

Editorial

Qadaffi -- It's not how You Spell his Name that Counts

As Tomahawk missiles from offshore American carriers and ordnance from French Rafale jets rain down fire and death on the Libyan troops and mercenaries of its murderous, erratic leader, the last thing he's worried about is how they spell his name in the headlines of American newspapers. And there's the rub.
